MAJOR TRANSACTIONS AND DISCLOSEABLE TRANSACTIONS IN RELATION TO SUBSCRIPTION OF WEALTH MANAGEMENT PRODUCTS

The Board announces that between 13 July 2021 and 22 March 2022, the Group subscribed for (i) the SPDB Wealth Management Products; (ii) the BOCHK Wealth Management Products; and (iii) the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products (collectively, the “Products”) for an aggregate principal amount of approximately RMB602.1 million. As at the date of this announcement, the aggregated outstanding principal amount of the Group’s SPDB Wealth Management Products, BOCHK Wealth Management Products and China Minsheng Wealth Management Products were RMB75.0 million, RMB31.9 million and RMB30.0 million, respectively.

LISTING RULES IMPLICATIONS

Subscription of the SPDB Wealth Management Products

As all SPDB Wealth Management Products were subscribed with SPDB and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with SPDB for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 25% but is less than 100%, the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products technically constitute a major transaction of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting, announcement, circular and Shareholders’ approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscription of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products

As all BOCHK Wealth Management Products were subscribed with BOCHK Asset Management and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with BOCHK Asset Management for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products technically constitute a discloseable transaction acquisition of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but is exempt from Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscription of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products

As all China Minsheng Wealth Management Products were subscribed with China Minsheng and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with China Minsheng for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products technically constitute a discloseable transaction acquisition of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but is exempt from Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

With the mistaken belief that the Products were similar in nature to time deposits and in general had low risk exposure which do not constitute transaction(s) as defined under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, the Company failed to comply with the applicable reporting, announcement and, where applicable, Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules in respect of the relevant subscriptions of the Products.

Considering that (i) the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products have been made with no early termination right on the Group before maturity; and (ii) most of the SPDB Wealth Management Products (except for SPDB Wealth Management Products no. 4 and 15) will be redeemed on or before 30 April 2022, even though the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products were subject to the Shareholders' approval requirements as set out above, the Company considers that it might not be meaningful and therefore does not intend to despatch any circular or convene any general meeting of the Company for the purpose of approving or ratifying the subscription of the SPDB Wealth Management Products.

BASIS OF DETERMINATION FOR THE CONSIDERATION

The Directors confirmed that the subscription amount and terms of each of the Products were determined on the basis of commercial terms negotiated after arm's length negotiation between the Group and each of SPDB, BOCHK Asset Management and China Minsheng (as the case maybe) having taken into account (i) the then financial status of the Group; (ii) the expected investment return and terms of the Products; and (iii) the expected annual return rates of similar wealth management products offered by other comparable banks then available in the market.

REASONS FOR AND BENEFITS OF SUBSCRIBING THE WEALTH MANAGEMENT PRODUCTS

Taking into account (i) the benefits of a better yield through the Subscriptions than current saving or time deposits generally offered by reputable commercial banks in the PRC; (ii) the risk nature and relatively short term of maturity of the Products; and (iii) that the Subscriptions were funded by internal idle funds which would not affect the sufficiency of working capital of the Group nor hinder the operation of the Group's businesses, the Directors are of the view that the terms and conditions of the Products are fair and reasonable and in the interest of the Group and its Shareholders as a whole.

IMPLICATIONS OF THE LISTING RULES

Subscription of the SPDB Wealth Management Products

As all SPDB Wealth Management Products were subscribed with SPDB and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the Subscriptions, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with SPDB for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 25% but is less than 100%, the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products technically constitute a major transaction of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting, announcement, circular and Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscription of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products

As all BOCHK Wealth Management Products were subscribed with BOCHK Asset Management and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with BOCHK Asset Management for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the subscriptions of the BOCHK Wealth Management Products technically constitute a discloseable transaction acquisition of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but is exempt from Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

Subscription of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products

As all China Minsheng Wealth Management Products were subscribed with China Minsheng and are of similar nature, the corresponding principal amounts of each of the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products, all completed within a 12 month period, have been aggregated as if there were one transaction with China Minsheng for the purpose of calculating the relevant percentage ratios pursuant to Rule 14.22 of the Listing Rules. As the highest applicable percentage ratio, on an aggregate basis, in respect of the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products at the relevant period exceeds 5% but is less than 25%, the subscriptions of the China Minsheng Wealth Management Products technically constitute a discloseable transaction acquisition of the Company for the purpose of the Listing Rules and should have been subject to the reporting and announcement requirements but is exempt from Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules.

With the mistaken belief that the Products were similar in nature to time deposits and in general had low risk exposure which do not constitute transaction(s) as defined under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, the Company failed to comply with the applicable reporting, announcement and, where applicable, Shareholders' approval requirements under Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules in respect of the relevant subscriptions of the Products.

Considering that (i) the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products have been made with no early termination right on the Group before maturity; and (ii) most of the SPDB Wealth Management Products (except for SPDB Wealth Management Products no. 4 and 15) will be redeemed on or before 30 April 2022, even though the subscriptions of the SPDB Wealth Management Products were subject to the Shareholders' approval requirements as set out above, the Company considers that it might not be meaningful and therefore does not intend to despatch any circular or convene any general meeting of the Company for the purpose of approving or ratifying the subscription of the SPDB Wealth Management Products.

REMEDIAL ACTIONS

The Company deeply regrets its non-compliance with the Listing Rules but the Company would like to stress that the delay in compliance with the Listing Rules was inadvertent and unintentional. To prevent similar cases from occurring in the future, the Company has conducted a comprehensive review and self-examination of the purchase of wealth management products in 2021 and as of the date of this announcement and will implement the following remedial actions as soon as practicable:

1. the Company will arrange, with the assistance of its legal advisers, a training on the applicability of Chapter 14 of the Listing Rules, particularly on the subscription of financial and wealth management products, for relevant staff, senior management and Directors to strengthen their understanding to identify the circumstances which are expected to trigger the announcement requirement under the Listing Rules and potential issues at an early stage to avoid the recurrence of delay in disclosure for future subscriptions of wealth management products and/or obtaining Shareholders' approval should such obligations arise;
2. the Company will adopt and circulate a detailed guideline relating to notifiable and connected transactions under the Listing Rules and will offer periodic trainings provided by its legal advisors to relevant staff, senior management and Directors in order to strengthen and reinforce their existing knowledge relating to notifiable and connected transactions, as well as their ability to identify potential issues at early stage;
3. as soon as the relevant breach has been discovered, the Company has been improving its financial control system, and improve the communication, coordination and reporting arrangements for notifiable transactions among the relevant departments (the "Relevant Departments") of the Group, including among its finance team, legal team, and the office of board secretary team. Specifically, with immediate effect, prior to entering into any relevant potential transaction in the future, the finance team will perform size test analysis accordingly. Where disclosure threshold is met, the finance team will notify the Relevant Departments the details of the proposed transaction and circulate the relevant drafts of transaction agreement for review by the legal team and the office of board secretary team of the Company to ensure compliance with the Listing Rules; and

4. on an ongoing basis, the Company will consult external legal or other professional parties before entering into any potential notifiable transaction. If necessary, the Company might also consult the Stock Exchange on the proper treatment of the proposed transaction.

Going forward, the Company will continue to comply with the procedures of its subscription for wealth management products and make appropriate disclosure in a timely manner to ensure compliance with the Listing Rules.
